Magnificent New Hotel Struck by a Tornado.

OTHER BUILDINGS DAMAGED.

A Severe Storm Crosses Over Lake Champlain, Doing a Vast Amount of Damage to Buildings and Vessels-A Number of People Reported Missing-Storm Doings

SARTAGGA, N. Y., July 9. - The magnificent new Biuff Point hotel at Bluff Point, three miles south of Plattsburgh, on Lake Champlain, was struck by a cyclone about noon yesterday and badiy damaged. A number of people are said to have been killed and injured. This news is brought by passengers on southbound trains. The telegraph wires north of here are down, but are being repaired.

The nearest point reached by telegraph is fifty miles from the hotel, and the only facis that can be learned from the operator at the point, Point Henry, s that a neavy storm prevailed on Lake Champiain. The operator says that a number of row boats were out on the lake with people from that point, and that sixteen persons have not yet been heard from, and it is feared their boats were lost.

Passengers on the midnight train from Montreal say the storm was general from Rouses Point to Whitehall. The force of the wind was terrific, many small houses at Rouses Point and other towns along the lake being lifted from their foundations and destroyed. The Bluff Point hotel suffered damage to the extent of $5,000. No one in the hotel was injured so far as known. One guest, name unknown, who was out in a small boat when the tornado struck the lake was drowned. Trees and small buildings in the vicinity were torn down by the wind.

The conductor of the train said that the steam launch, "Nellie," with twelve people on board, was wrecked in the storm near the Bluff Point hotel. Five storm near the Bluff Point hotel. Five got ashore in safety and the remaining seven are missing. At Port Henry, ten people who were out in row boats are missing. The name of the guest known to be drowned is Valley. He was stopping with his two daughters at the Bluff Point hotel. The tin roof of the hotel was torn off by the wind and nearly every window in the house was shattered. The guests were panic-stricken, but none in the house at the time were injured. More than 500 trees in the vicinity were leveled.

At Burlington, Vermout.

BURLINGTON, Vt., July 9.—The storm which occurred yesterday afternoon was the worst known for years, and several private yachts had narrow escapes from sinking. The steamers Vermont and Chateau Gay were both late at this port, and fears were entertained for their safety, but arrived safe. Word has been received here that the tug Nellie, Capt. Clark, of Willsboro, foundered off Rouses Point at the beginning of the storm and sank with Capt. Clark, his son and the engineer, and a resident of Rouses Point, name unknown, on board. No lives were lost in this immediate vicinity. Considerable damage was done to shade trees and lawns, and some chimneys were blown off. A house in Underhill was struck by lightning and badly damaged.

Severe Storm at Winthrop, Maine. WINTHROP, Me., July 9 .- A remarkably severe wind and rain storm occurred at 6:30 p. m., the wind reaching the velocity of a tornado. A large number of buildings were badly damaged, the wind seeming to cut a. swath through the town about 200 feet wide. The belfry of the Methodist church was belfry of the Methodist church was blown off and fell upon Chester Shaw's house. Mrs. P. B. Shaw, Chester Shaw's mother, was terribly crushed by the falling of the roof, which callapsed under the weight of the belfry. She is not expected to survive. Other members of the family had narrow escapes. Leander Bates' carriage was struck by a falling tree and demolished. Mr. Bates was badly hurt. The streets were blocked with debris and the damage is very extensive.

In Cleveland, Ohio.

CLEVELAND, O., July 9.—A severe wind storm struck this city at 5:30 o'clock yesterday evening, and blew fiercely for about twenty minutes. One of the four great electric light masts, located at the corner of Lake and Bank streets, was prostrated, demolishing the sidewalk where it fell. The front of the VanCleve Glass and Sash company's store, west of the viaduct, was carried away, and all the trees in the South Side park laid low. Reports of minor damage comes from all quarters of

In Michigan.

CHEBOYGAN, Mich., July 9.—A severe rain storm, accompanied by a gale from the northwest struck this city last night, doing considerable damage to buildings, fences and trees, and leveling the crops in the surrounding country. Houses in the lower part of the town were completely surrounded by water from two to three feet in depth.

In Southwestern New York.

BUFFALO, N. Y., July 9 .- Southwestern New York was visited by a severe wind and rain storm yesterday evening. Reports from Fredonia, Salamanca and other places say that trees were uprooted, houses moved from their founda-tions, crops devastated and other dam-

Streets Flooded in Jamestown, N. Y. BUFFALO, N. Y., July 9.—A special to The Express from Jamestown, N. Y., says that a sudden storm last night flooded the streets, and the wind blew down trees and damaged buildings.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

Meeting of the Supreme Lodge in the City of Milwankee, Wisconsin.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 9. - The Supreme Lodge of Knights of Pythias was welcomed to the city yesterday morning by Mayor Peck, Governor Heard and Grand Chancellor Hoskins.

J. P. Linton, of Johnstown, responded. After the reception the Supreme lodge convened at West Side Turner hall, Supreme Vice Chancellor Shaw presiding. The annual report show that the order had a membership at the close of 1889 of 263,847, and now about 275,-000. In treasuries of Grand lodges, $1,755,-208. Paid for relief in past year, $789, 455.53; in the past two years, $1,497, 435.66. Ohio has gained most largely, 5,582 members; Indiana, 3,240. South Carolina's percentage is higher, 47.97; Colorado, 46.05.

Vice Chancellor George B. Shaw, of Eau Claire, Wis., will undoubtedly be elected supreme chancellor. There will be a hard fight on the question of crushing out local insurance companies connected with grand lodges.

The parade of the uniformed and ununiformed ranks took place in the afternoon at 4 o'clock, and was unquestionably the grandest procession, civic or military, ever seen in the city. It took two hours for the procession to pass a given point. Careful estimates by Pythian officers, as well as by well-posted military men and civilians, place the number of men in line at over 6,000.

The uniform rank men in line numbered nearly 6,000, nearly every regiment in the United States and Canada being represented. As the vast column moved down Grant avenue, and brigade after brigade fell in from side streets, a grander scene of pageantry could not well be imagined. Through the trees on that well shaded avenue the bright plumes, glittering epaulets, shining swords and other knightly parapher-nalia glisteded and danced in the rays of a declining day with most beautiful of a declining day with most beautiful effect, and appeared as one endless stream of golden brilliancy.

The only affair of the kind that equalled it was the one by uniformed knights in Cincinnati three years ago, which Gen. Sherman reviewed and which Gen. Sherman reviewed and pronounced the finest since the close of the war. There were at that time 10,000 in line. One of the interesting features of the parade was the appearance, for the first time in the history of order, of the so-called non-uniform knights, ie knights belonging to the rank and file of the order. This novel feature was under command of Col. J. A. Watrons, assisted by an able corps of aides and escorted by the Fourth bataides and escorted by the Fourth battalion, commanded by Col. Falk.

Outburst of a Volcano.

WASHINGTON, July 9.—Secretary Noble late yesterday afternoon received the following dispatch from Superin-tendent Boutelle at Mammoth Hot Springs, Wy. T., which seems to indicate the outburst of a volcano in that region: The following dispatch just received from Morris basin: "At 4:15 p. m. there was a severe shock of earthquake followed by a terrific roar, and upon investigation it proved that the geyser, called 'New Crater,' had an eruption. It is throwing up a column of steam, stones and water about 200 feet in circumference and to the height of about 125 feet, and shaking the whole basin around the vicinity."

Doings of Both the House and Senate.

QUITE A VARIETY OF BUSINESS.

A Bill Passes the House to Adopt Resolutions for Preventing Collisions at Sea. The Senate Discusses the Silver Bill and Eulogized the Late Representative S. S. Cox.

WASHINGTON, July 9 .- In the house yesterday immediately after the prayer, Mr. Rogers, of Arkansas, made the point of order that there was no quorum present. The speaker counted but 123 members, and on motion of Mr. Mc-Kinley, of Ohio, a call of the house was ordered. One hundred and four members answered to their names, and the journal of the previous proceeding was withdraw his request, as he had a report to make from the committee on rules relative to the "original package" bill.

Mr. Cannon, of Illinois, asked him to

Mr. Dingley thereupon asked that the bill be ordered printed and remain upon the speaker's table. Mr. Cummings, of New York, objected, saying that the saying of life at sea was more important than the passing of a bill for the benefit of prohibition cranks.

The bill having been read, Mr. Ding-ley explained that its purpose was the adoption of regulations to prevent collision at sea which had been unanimously adopted by the international marine conference. The members of the conference were of the opinion that the code of signals provided in the bill would prove more effective than any other that could be devised.

After a brief discussion the previous question was ordered—yeas 99, nays 91. There were forty-six pairs announced upon this vote—equivalent to ninety-two

Mr. Payson raised the question of consideration in favor of the land grant

Mr. Bynum, of Indiana, raised the question of consideration, and the house decided—yeas 87, nays 72—to consider the conference reports, the speaker counting a quorum.

Pending action, Mr. Cummings, of New York, rising to a question of personal privilege, quoted from the speech made by him on the National election bill, some allusions to John I. Davenger the theory and a letter he had refrom New Orleans over the Illinois Central due in this city on the initial trip at 1 o'clock yesterday morning, ran into an empty freight car near Monee, Ill., thirty-five miles out of Chicago. The freight car was totally wrecked, being distributed for yards along the track. The locomotive of the fast mail train, though badly crippled, did not leave the track. The mail coach and baggage car also held to the track, the occupants of the car sustaining no injuries beyond slight bruises from contact with the sides of the car.

WASHINGTON, July 9.—The senate yesterday, after routine business, took up the conference report on the silver bill, and debated it until 3 o'clock, when it was laid aside and the senate proceeded with eulogies on the late Representative S. S. Cox, of New York.

Mr. Hiscock offered the resolution of sorrow and sympathy and delivered a brief eulogy.

Mr. Voorhees spoke of Mr. Cox as one whose life was free from stain, speck or blemish, as a brave man, mentally and physically, a man, who laughed danger in the face and the law of whose being was liberality:
Mr. Sherman paid his tribute to the private and public life of Mr. Cox, and was at times so effected as to be forced to pause until he mastered his emotion.

After addresses by Mr. Vest and Mr. Dixon, Mr. Evarts eulogized Mr. Cox. It was not doubted, he said, that Mr. Cox had served the state from boyhood up; that he had labored for her and loved her; that for society and friendship and manhood he did what enabled and expanded him, and that he was enrolled on the list of those whose memory men would not willingly suffer to pass out of notice.

The resolution was adopted, and as a further mark of respect the senate adjourned.

Mr. Miller's car broke both couplings and rolled down a twelve-foot bank, all escaping unhurt, except Mrs. Clara Rowe, the nurse, who got an ugly scalp wound and bad gash over the right eye. The engine and eleven cars kept the track.

GRAND LODGE OF ELKS.

An Important Meeting Held in Cleveland, Obio.

CLEVELAND, O., July 9 .- The Elk's reunion here came to a close Monday night and the only business on hand for yesterday morning was the opening meeting of the Grand Lodge. Dr. Simon Quinlin, of Chicago, Exalted Grand Ruler of the organization, rapped the meeting to order shortly before noon, and the committee on credentials retired to prepare a report.

The roll call developed the fact that every lodge but one was represented in the meeting. The absentee was New York No. 1, which some time ago raised objections to the holding of Grand Lodge meetings outside of New York City. The only business done at the opening session was that of organizing and pre-paring for the knotty problems that will have to be solved before the meeting adjourns. At 1 o'clock a recess was taken until morning. The grand parade took place in the afternoon and the banquet in the evening. It is estimated that 3,000 Elks are in the city.

Attempted Highway Robbery.

Wilmington, O., July 9. — While Carry Shepp, a berry dealer, was passing through a covered bridge near Reesville, he had a thrilling encounter with two highwaymen. No further clew to the highwaymen has been secured.

"For the Chairman of our National Committes, Mr. Quay, we feel a lasting sense of gratitude for his matchless services in the last Presidential campaign, and commend his bearing under the slanders which his successful leadership of our party has purchased for him. As a citizen, a member of the General Assembly, as Secretary of the Commonwealth under two successive administrations, as a State Treasurer by the overwhelming suffrages of his fellow citizens, and a Senator of the United States, he has won and retains our respect and confidence."

His 'bearing under the slanders' was simply standing silent under a charge of personal dishonesty supported by reputable and well-known witnesses. Fancy a great political party 'commending' a leader for his departure from the customs of honorable men in every civilized community. This, was indeed, subsequently considered a li tle too strong, so the Quay plank was shifted from the beginning to the end of the platform, and all reference to 'slanders' was omitted. But 'confidence' was still expressed in a man who once while in charge of the Treasury, and once while having access to it in another office, abstracted from it over a quarter of a million of dollars on each occasion and used it in gambling. The facts have long been known among the leading business men of Philadelphia, and were produced in 1885 by the leading Republican journal of the State-the Press-as'a reason why Quay could not be nominated for the State Treasurership."

THE election the first Monday in August will be the most important held in this county for years. Democrats should get out their full vote.

THE Democratic primaries in Bath and Rowan counties Saturday insure the nomination of Hon. J. J. Nesbitt, of Owingsville, for Delegate to the Constitutional convention. It is thought the Farmers' Alliance will put a candidate in the field in opposition to him, but the matter has not yet been settled.

TRUE, W. W. Longmoor is an ex-Confederate and he was nominated by the Democrats for Appellate Clerk. And it is conceded on all hands that he is splendidly qualified for the position. Republicans who prate so much about his connection with the "lost cause," overlook the fact that their party has been only too anxious to pick up ex-Confederates who have forsaken the Democratic party. Look at Mahone in Virginia and Chalmers in Mississippi. An ex-Confederate seems to be considered a splendid fellow by the most bitter Republicans as soon as he gets over into the ranks of the g. o. p. Major Matt Adams and his Union Demthan to listen to the clap-trap ranting of the Republican candidate for Appellate Clerk.

Wonder where and how the phrase originated, "put his foot in it," to indicate a great mistake or big blunder? But howin use, to express a big blunder or a huge mistake.

That's why we use it in connection with cheap shoes.

At Dayton, O., the thermometer, at 2:80 in the afternoon, registered 104 in the shade, the highest of the season. No casualties reported.

In New York.

New York, July 9.—The old idea that July 8 is the hottest day in the year would seem to be justified by the weather yesterday. The mercury reached 100 degrees at 3:30 p. m., and the day was the hottest since July 8, 1876, when 98 degrees was registered. There were many cases of prostration by the heat.

In Boston.

Boston, July 9.—Yesterday was the hottest of the season, the thermometor at the signal office registering 91 1-2 at 2:80 p. m. A good southwest breeze tempered the fierce heat, and no fatalities were reported. The highest last year was also 91 degrees.

In Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, O., July 9.—At 2 p. m. the temperature was 95.3, the hottest of the year. The breeze, however, prevented the extreme heat from being felt as much as on a still day. There were not many cases of sunstroke reported.

PITTSBURG, July 9.—The highest temperature recorded yesterday at the signal office in this city was 94.2 at 1:30 p. m. This is the highest temperature recorded since July 10, 1887, when the mercury recorded 102.7.

SHOT HIS DAUGHTER'S LOVER; And Will Serve Five Years in the Peniten. tiary for the Crime.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., July 6 .- James Hinds, a well-to-do citizen of Madison, was received at the prison yesterday to serve five years for shooting Charles Antle. Antle courted Hind's pretty daughter, to which the father objected and threatened Antle's life.

One day Antle passed Hinds as the latter was sitting in a chair in front of a business house. Hinds spoke to him in a threatening manner, and finally, drawing a pistol, remarked that he might as well kill him, and then fired, charged with forgery. He is accused of wounding Antle. Miss Hinds is still altering six International and Great devoted to him, and her father has the galling consciousness that his crime was utterly useless. Hinds was sentenced July 4, when everybody else was celebrating.

Their Strike a Failure - Bradford Indorsed by the Press.

LONDON, July 9.—The city had a bad night Monday night. Three hundred of the police went on a strike against the arbitrary methods of Sir Edward Bradford, the new chief, who made his reputation handling the police of India, and who seems to think that methods which succeeded in Calcutta will succeed in

The crowds in Bow street had to be charged by the horse guards, and many were hurt. Some horsemen were un-horsed. The Prince and Princess of Wales, at Covent Garden theater to hear "Les Huguenots," had to leave by the back way. Merchants and bank clerks were on guard all night at their places of business.

Quietness prevailed throughout the entire metropolitan police force Tuesday morning. None of the men were on a strike. Two members of the force who were taken into custody for assaulting superior officers Tuesday, have each been sentenced to fourteen days' imprisonment. The men are weakening. They have no organization, and it is not likely that they will attempt to enforce their demands by a general strike. It is possible, however, that further isolated disturbance may occur. The constables who were dismissed from the force for their connection with the present troubles, are petitioning the authorities for reinstatement.

London Papers Inderse Bradford.

LONDON, July 9.-The morning newspapers are unanimous in condemnation of the police strike, which sentiment is shared by the public generally. Public opinion has condemned Sir Edward Bradford's arbitrary policy since his appointment as chief commissioner of police, but is overwhelmingly favorable to him in its estimate of his conduct Mon-

On all sides his course was applauded, and nobody questions its necessity. The police were placed at a decided disadvantage as regards justification in attempting to strike upon the short notice they gave of their intention, since every warmen of the force is bound by an agreement to give two months' notice of his purpose of abandoning the service.

The agricultural strains and the service of the agricultural strains and the service.

The agitators of the strike were mainly novices, who had everything to gain and little to lose. The veterans of the force hesitated to sacrifice the benefits and advantages of their past long service by following the lead of their hot-headed juniors, and their hesitancy in the future will certainly be greater.

It is unquestionably to the coolness and better judgment of the older men in the service that the failure of the and their reluctance to take the step influenced many of their colleagues, who otherwise would have responded to the call for a general outbreak.

A Cable Finished.

Halifax, N. S., July 9.—Advices from the cable ship Westmeath, which is now lying off Bermuda, say that great difficulty was found in laying the shore end of the Halifax-Bermuda cable. The work has been successfully accomplished, however, and in a few hours Bermuda will have electrical communication with the civilized world.

An Indignant Bookkeeper. CHICAGO, July 9.-The story printed in the morning papers that Adolph Hoske, bookkeeper for Young Brothers, furniture manufacturers, was missing, together with $1,200 of the firm's money, is untrue. Mr. Hoske was about his business as usual to-day and much surprised and indignant that such a report could have originated. Depew's Latest.

New York, July 9.—A special from Chicago to The Herald says it is stated on what is believed to be good authority that President Chauncey M. Depew, of the New York Central, will also be president of the reorganized Union Stock Yards company, the Vanderbilts still having a large interest in the vards.

Killed By an Owl Train.

New London, Conn., July 9.—John Kelly, aged 59, a tin roofer of Brooklyn, was struck and killed by the Shore Line Owl train this morning. He arrived here by the boat an hour before and started to look up an officer of the ship, in which he served during the war, to assist him in obtaining a pension.

Stonecutters' Strike.

LONDON, O., July 9.—Representatives from Dayton and Springfield stonecutters' unions came here and effected an organization among the stonecutters working on the new court house here, and the result is a strike. They demand forty cents per hour, instead of thirty-five cents, now paid. Contractors re fuse the advance, and the work has stopped.

Rivals Suspected.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 9.—In Harrison county, Ind., the White Caps took Augustus Collin from the presence of a young lady, upon whom he was calling, into a woods near by, gave him a severe whipping, and warned him to cease his attentions. Unsuccessful arrivals are suspected of being in the party.
